

Modern Jeopardy Trivia

We have chosen six categories with six questions in each category. The categories are: Romantic Pairs, Inventions by Women, Famous Commercials, Car and Driver, Sport Milestones and Records, and Cosmetics.

Choose from one of the following activities:

- Print a copy of the Jeopardy questions and answers. Play as a group or in teams. The “host” reads the clue, and the group/team tries to come up with the question/answer. Keep score and award points. Print pictures to hand out as visual clues for some of the trivia questions.
- Set up a Jeopardy board. Draw a grid. Write the six categories across the top of a whiteboard or flip chart, and write the dollar amounts below each category. Play as a group, in teams, or with three contestants, as on the TV show. Keep score and award points. Mark off each amount after it is awarded. The first person/team to answer correctly gets to select the next category and amount. Choose a Daily Double question in advance and award double points for the correct answer. Players can wager any amount of their winnings during the Final Jeopardy round. Alternate answers appear in parentheses after the primary answer.
- Print fill-in-the-blank copies of just the clues to hand out for independent activities. Also available are the clues with the answers.

Trivia Questions and Answers

Romantic Pairs

1. ($100) Complete the real-life couple: Katharine Ross and this mustachioed leading man.
Answer: Who is Sam Elliott? The pair met while filming 1978's The Legacy and tied the knot in 1984.
2. ($200) Joe Pesci and Marisa Tomei are couple Vinny Gambini and Mona Lisa Vito in this 1992 comedy.
Answer: What is My Cousin Vinny? The American Bar Association has ranked the film No. 3 on its top legal movies list.
3. ($400) Goldie Hawn and Kurt Russell take their romance to the big screen with this 1987 flick about an heiress with amnesia.
Answer: What is Overboard? The real-life couple brought their children to the set while filming; the youngest took his first steps there!

4. ($600) This “Hound Dog” singer and his wife, Priscilla, were one of the “it” couples of the 1960s and early ’70s.

Answer: Who is Elvis? The 2023 movie Priscilla examines their marriage.

5. ($800) In 1984’s Splash, Tom Hanks’ love interest is secretly this type of mythical being, played by Daryl Hannah.

Answer: What is a mermaid? The film is credited with introducing the girl’s name Madison, which was popular through the early 2000s.

6. ($1,000) A late ’90s teen romance, 10 Things I Hate About You is based on a (much) earlier work by this English playwright.

Answer: Who is William Shakespeare? The Heath Ledger and Julia Stiles film is based on The Taming of the Shrew.

Inventions by Women

7. ($100) It was during this big-hair decade that young inventor Rachel Zimmerman created a symbol communication device called the Blissymbol.

Answer: What is the 1980s? The 12-year-old Zimmerman’s invention allowed non-speaking people to communicate using symbols on a touchpad.

8. ($200) During the 1970s, Erna Schneider Hoover patented a new switching system that helped manage calls from these devices.

Answer: What are telephones? Hoover’s patent helped telephone call centers manage a higher volume of calls.

9. ($400) Maria Telkes was an inventor nicknamed the “Sun Queen” for her inventions in this kind of energy.

Answer: What is solar? Her career spanned the 20th century and spawned creations like a solar distillation device and a home heated entirely through solar energy.

10. ($600) This bulletproof material used for vests and other military gear was invented thanks to scientist Stephanie Kwolek.

Answer: What is Kevlar? During her time working at DuPont, Kwolek created a solid, lightweight material that became known as Kevlar.

11. ($800) In this field of STEM, Mary Wilkes is known for creating programs like the LINC software.

Answer: What is computing? In 1972, she left this field to pursue a law career, but not before her inventions changed computing for us all.

12. ($1,000) Inventor Patricia Bath created the Laserphaco Probe in 1986, which allowed eye doctors to safely dissolve this vision-disturbing clouding of the eye lens.

Answer: What is a cataract? Bath's probe is still used today as a painless way to treat cataracts.

Famous Commercials

13. ($100) Debuting in 1969 and running for decades, this brand's most famous commercial features an owl asking, "How many licks" to the center of this sweet treat.

Answer: What is a Tootsie Pop? This is one of the longest-running commercials in TV ad history and is often aired around candy-centric holidays like Halloween.

14. ($200) In the 1990s, a famous commercial for this soft drink featured Cindy Crawford simply walking to a vending machine.

Answer: What is Pepsi? The commercial first aired during the 1992 Super Bowl.

15. ($400) A 1987 Super Bowl commercial from this beer brand featured a goofy bull terrier named Spuds MacKenzie.

Answer: What is Bud Light? The commercial was successful but drew criticism for being too child-friendly for a beer brand.

16. ($600) Fittingly, an Apple commercial from this year referenced George Orwell's most famous book.

Answer: What is 1984? The computer brand played off the novel's idea of conformity to espouse their new PC as breaking the mold.

17. ($800) One of the most famous commercial campaigns of all time, Coca-Cola's 1971 "I'd Like to Buy the World a Coke" ad was originally shot in this European nation.

Answer: What is Italy? The beautiful Roman hillside was actually the backup location; weather prevented shooting at the Cliffs of Dover.

18. ($1,000) In 1996, Budweiser first aired a commercial featuring these large horses, now closely associated with the brand.

Answer: What are Clydesdales? In the original Super Bowl commercial, a herd of horses plays football while cowboys look on.

Car and Driver

19. ($100) Cars driven by this suave spy include the Mustang Mach 1, Aston Martin V8, and BMW Z8.

Answer: Who is James Bond? Since 1962's Dr. No, when the spy drove a simple Sunbeam Alpine, Bond cars have been getting more luxurious and eye-catching across the decades.

20. ($200) These, with shoulder harnesses, were required by U.S. law starting in 1968 in all consumer automobiles.

Answer: What are seat belts? Seat belts in their early days were just lap belts, but Volvo began popularizing the three-point belt in the 1960s.

21. ($400) The Swedish automaker Saab made these bottom-warming devices standard in 1972.

Answer: What are heated seats (or seat warmers)? Cadillac had debuted a seat warmer option in 1966, but Saab made a heated driver's seat standard.

22. ($600) In the 1980s, French automaker Renault debuted a car that could unlock without the use of these.

Answer: What are keys? The Renault Fuego featured a handheld keyless entry system, much like those commonly used today.

23. ($800) This Hueytown, Alabama, resident, along with son Davey, is one of NASCAR's most beloved drivers from the 1970s and '80s.

Answer: Who is Bobby Allison? The Allison family is one example of a racing family; others include the Earnhardts, Bakers, and Elliots.

24. ($1,000) Dashboards got a futuristic makeover in 1976, when the first of this type of display was unveiled. Bye-bye, analog dials!

Answer: What is digital? The Aston Martin Lagonda was the first car to feature a digital dashboard, paving the way for today's touchscreen dashes.

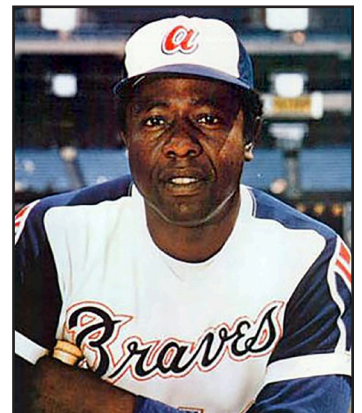

Sport Milestones and Records

25. ($100) The track and field world records for 100 and 200 meters are both held by this American, also called Flo Jo.

Answer: Who is Florence Griffith Joyner? Both records were set in 1988, one in Indiana and the other at the Olympics.

26. ($200) On April 4, 1974, this man tied Babe Ruth's record with 714 home runs; he would break the record only four days later.

Answer: Who is Hank Aaron? Aaron was congratulated for tying the record by Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn and Vice President Ford.

27. ($400) A milestone for this chilly sport came in 1972 with the Summit Series, a series of games between Canada and the Soviet Union.

Answer: What is ice hockey? The highlight of the series was Canada's dramatic win during game eight.

28. ($600) A milestone in basketball came in 1976 when the NBA joined forces with the ABA, which stands for this, creating a strengthened front.

Answer: What is the American Basketball Association? Importantly, the merger introduced the three-point line to NBA gameplay.

29. ($800) In 1984, a White Sox–Brewers game set a record for most of these played.

Answer: What are innings? The remarkable game was 25 innings and lasted over eight hours, which also set a record for the longest Major League game.

30. ($1,000) The world record for a hammer throw is held by Yuriy Sedykh, of this nation (at the time), which no longer exists.

Answer: What is the Soviet Union? Set on August 30, 1986, the record still stands at 86.74 meters (284.5 feet).

Cosmetics

31. ($100) Established in 1973, the International Cosmetic Ingredient Nomenclature Committee oversaw standardizing these for cosmetic ingredients.

Answer: What are names? Standardized names for ingredients were created in order to help consumers around the world recognize what was in their makeup.

32. ($200) Animal lovers rejoiced in 1981, when a research center was founded to find alternatives to this controversial kind of cosmetic testing.

Answer: What is animal testing? The Johns Hopkins Center for Alternatives to Animal Testing funds grants and research for finding animal-safe testing methods.

33. ($400) Popular since the 1960s, this cosmetic brand is named for its founder and known for its trademark pink cars driven by the company's salespeople.

Answer: What is Mary Kay? Mary Kay Ash decided customers would rather purchase products in a home environment and created her direct sales model.

34. ($600) In the 1970s, this eyelash enhancer became popular in colorful varieties like blue, green, and purple.

Answer: What is mascara? Mascara innovation continued in the '80s, when vitamins and growth serums were added to the cosmetic.

35. ($800) Cover Girl introduced a “crackle” variety of this fingertip-adorning cosmetic in 1999.

Answer: What is nail polish? Gals might remember the trend from the '90s and 2000s of layering crackle nail polish over a contrasting color to create a unique, weathered look.

36. ($1,000) In the 1970s, eyeshadow shades went pearlescent and were called this word, which calls to mind cakes more than makeup.

Answer: What is frosted? Cosmetics trends of the decade included highly blended frosted shadows in one shade across the entire lid.

Final Jeopardy

This 1980 Best Picture winner stars Dustin Hoffman and Meryl Streep, embroiled in a custody battle.

Answer: What is Kramer vs. Kramer? Meryl Streep actually wrote her closing monologue in the courtroom scene, and the director called it brilliant.

Sam Elliott

Elvis and Priscilla

Solar Energy

Tootsie Pop

Clydesdale

Bobby Allison

Hank Aaron

Mascara

Modern Jeopardy Trivia

(Questions Only)

Romantic Pairs

1. ($100) Complete the real-life couple: Katharine Ross and this mustachioed leading man.

Answer: _____

2. ($200) Joe Pesci and Marisa Tomei are couple Vinny Gambini and Mona Lisa Vito in this 1992 comedy.

Answer: _____

3. ($400) Goldie Hawn and Kurt Russell take their romance to the big screen with this 1987 flick about an heiress with amnesia.

Answer: _____

4. ($600) This "Hound Dog" singer and his wife, Priscilla, were one of the "it" couples of the 1960s and early '70s.

Answer: _____

5. ($800) In 1984's Splash, Tom Hanks' love interest is secretly this type of mythical being, played by Daryl Hannah.

Answer: _____

6. ($1,000) A late '90s teen romance, 10 Things I Hate About You is based on a (much) earlier work by this English playwright.

Answer: _____

Inventions by Women

7. ($100) It was during this big-hair decade that young inventor Rachel Zimmerman created a symbol communication device called the Blissymbol.

Answer: _____

8. ($200) During the 1970s, Erna Schneider Hoover patented a new switching system that helped manage calls from these devices.

Answer: _____

9. ($400) Maria Telkes was an inventor nicknamed the "Sun Queen" for her inventions in this kind of energy.

Answer: _____

10. ($600) This bulletproof material used for vests and other military gear was invented thanks to scientist Stephanie Kwolek.

Answer: _____

11. ($800) In this field of STEM, Mary Wilkes is known for creating programs like the LINC software.

Answer: _____

12. ($1,000) Inventor Patricia Bath created the Laserphaco Probe in 1986, which allowed eye doctors to safely dissolve this vision-disturbing clouding of the eye lens.

Answer: _____

Famous Commercials

13. ($100) Debuting in 1969 and running for decades, this brand's most famous commercial features an owl asking, "How many licks" to the center of this sweet treat.

Answer: _____

14. ($200) In the 1990s, a famous commercial for this soft drink featured Cindy Crawford simply walking to a vending machine.

Answer: _____

15. ($400) A 1987 Super Bowl commercial from this beer brand featured a goofy bull terrier named Spuds MacKenzie.

Answer: _____

16. ($600) Fittingly, an Apple commercial from this year referenced George Orwell's most famous book.

Answer: _____

17. ($800) One of the most famous commercial campaigns of all time, Coca-Cola's 1971 "I'd Like to Buy the World a Coke" ad was originally shot in this European nation.

Answer: _____

18. ($1,000) In 1996, Budweiser first aired a commercial featuring these large horses, now closely associated with the brand.

Answer: _____

Car and Driver

19. ($100) Cars driven by this suave spy include the Mustang Mach 1, Aston Martin V8, and BMW Z8.

Answer: _____

20. ($200) These, with shoulder harnesses, were required by U.S. law starting in 1968 in all consumer automobiles.

Answer: _____

21. ($400) The Swedish automaker Saab made these bottom-warming devices standard in 1972.

Answer: _____

22. ($600) In the 1980s, French automaker Renault debuted a car that could unlock without the use of these.

Answer: _____

23. ($800) This Hueytown, Alabama, resident, along with son Davey, is one of NASCAR's most beloved drivers from the 1970s and '80s.

Answer: _____

24. ($1,000) Dashboards got a futuristic makeover in 1976, when the first of this type of display was unveiled. Bye-bye, analog dials!

Answer: _____

Sport Milestones and Records

25. ($100) The track and field world records for 100 and 200 meters are both held by this American, also called Flo Jo.

Answer: _____

26. ($200) On April 4, 1974, this man tied Babe Ruth's record with 714 home runs; he would break the record only four days later.

Answer: _____

27. ($400) A milestone for this chilly sport came in 1972 with the Summit Series, a series of games between Canada and the Soviet Union.

Answer: _____

28. ($600) A milestone in basketball came in 1976 when the NBA joined forces with the ABA, which stands for this, creating a strengthened front.

Answer: _____

29. ($800) In 1984, a White Sox–Brewers game set a record for most of these played.

Answer: _____

30. ($1,000) The world record for a hammer throw is held by Yuriy Sedykh, of this nation (at the time), which no longer exists.

Answer: _____

Cosmetics

31. ($100) Established in 1973, the International Cosmetic Ingredient Nomenclature Committee oversaw standardizing these for cosmetic ingredients.

Answer: _____

32. ($200) Animal lovers rejoiced in 1981, when a research center was founded to find alternatives to this controversial kind of cosmetic testing.

Answer: _____

33. ($400) Popular since the 1960s, this cosmetic brand is named for its founder and known for its trademark pink cars driven by the company's salespeople.

Answer: _____

34. ($600) In the 1970s, this eyelash enhancer became popular in colorful varieties like blue, green, and purple.

Answer: _____

35. ($800) Cover Girl introduced a "crackle" variety of this fingertip-adorning cosmetic in 1999.

Answer: _____

36. ($1,000) In the 1970s, eyeshadow shades went pearlescent and were called this word, which calls to mind cakes more than makeup.

Answer: _____

Final Jeopardy

This 1980 Best Picture winner stars Dustin Hoffman and Meryl Streep, embroiled in a custody battle.

Answer: _____

Modern Jeopardy Trivia

(Questions with Answers)

Romantic Pairs

1. ($100) Complete the real-life couple: Katharine Ross and this mustachioed leading man.

Answer: Who is Sam Elliott? The pair met while filming 1978's The Legacy and tied the knot in 1984.

2. ($200) Joe Pesci and Marisa Tomei are couple Vinny Gambini and Mona Lisa Vito in this 1992 comedy.

Answer: What is My Cousin Vinny? The American Bar Association has ranked the film No. 3 on its top legal movies list.

3. ($400) Goldie Hawn and Kurt Russell take their romance to the big screen with this 1987 flick about an heiress with amnesia.

Answer: What is Overboard? The real-life couple brought their children to the set while filming; the youngest took his first steps there!

4. ($600) This "Hound Dog" singer and his wife, Priscilla, were one of the "it" couples of the 1960s and early '70s.

Answer: Who is Elvis? The 2023 movie Priscilla examines their marriage.

5. ($800) In 1984's Splash, Tom Hanks' love interest is secretly this type of mythical being, played by Daryl Hannah.

Answer: What is a mermaid? The film is credited with introducing the girl's name Madison, which was popular through the early 2000s.

6. ($1,000) A late '90s teen romance, 10 Things I Hate About You is based on a (much) earlier work by this English playwright.

Answer: Who is William Shakespeare? The Heath Ledger and Julia Stiles film is based on The Taming of the Shrew.

Inventions by Women

7. ($100) It was during this big-hair decade that young inventor Rachel Zimmerman created a symbol communication device called the Blissymbol.

Answer: What is the 1980s? The 12-year-old Zimmerman’s invention allowed non-speaking people to communicate using symbols on a touchpad.

8. ($200) During the 1970s, Erna Schneider Hoover patented a new switching system that helped manage calls from these devices.

Answer: What are telephones? Hoover’s patent helped telephone call centers manage a higher volume of calls.

9. ($400) Maria Telkes was an inventor nicknamed the “Sun Queen” for her inventions in this kind of energy.

Answer: What is solar? Her career spanned the 20th century and spawned creations like a solar distillation device and a home heated entirely through solar energy.

10. ($600) This bulletproof material used for vests and other military gear was invented thanks to scientist Stephanie Kwolek.

Answer: What is Kevlar? During her time working at DuPont, Kwolek created a solid, lightweight material that became known as Kevlar.

11. ($800) In this field of STEM, Mary Wilkes is known for creating programs like the LINC software.

Answer: What is computing? In 1972, she left this field to pursue a law career, but not before her inventions changed computing for us all.

12. ($1,000) Inventor Patricia Bath created the Laserphaco Probe in 1986, which allowed eye doctors to safely dissolve this vision-disturbing clouding of the eye lens.

Answer: What is a cataract? Bath’s probe is still used today as a painless way to treat cataracts.

Famous Commercials

13. ($100) Debuting in 1969 and running for decades, this brand’s most famous commercial features an owl asking, “How many licks” to the center of this sweet treat.

Answer: What is a Tootsie Pop? This is one of the longest-running commercials in TV ad history and is often aired around candy-centric holidays like Halloween.

14. ($200) In the 1990s, a famous commercial for this soft drink featured Cindy Crawford simply walking to a vending machine.

Answer: What is Pepsi? The commercial first aired during the 1992 Super Bowl.

15. ($400) A 1987 Super Bowl commercial from this beer brand featured a goofy bull terrier named Spuds MacKenzie.

Answer: What is Bud Light? The commercial was successful but drew criticism for being too child-friendly for a beer brand.

16. ($600) Fittingly, an Apple commercial from this year referenced George Orwell's most famous book.

Answer: What is 1984? The computer brand played off the novel's idea of conformity to espouse their new PC as breaking the mold.

17. ($800) One of the most famous commercial campaigns of all time, Coca-Cola's 1971 "I'd Like to Buy the World a Coke" ad was originally shot in this European nation.

Answer: What is Italy? The beautiful Roman hillside was actually the backup location; weather prevented shooting at the Cliffs of Dover.

18. ($1,000) In 1996, Budweiser first aired a commercial featuring these large horses, now closely associated with the brand.

Answer: What are Clydesdales? In the original Super Bowl commercial, a herd of horses plays football while cowboys look on.

Car and Driver

19. ($100) Cars driven by this suave spy include the Mustang Mach 1, Aston Martin V8, and BMW Z8.

Answer: Who is James Bond? Since 1962's Dr. No, when the spy drove a simple Sunbeam Alpine, Bond cars have been getting more luxurious and eye-catching across the decades.

20. ($200) These, with shoulder harnesses, were required by U.S. law starting in 1968 in all consumer automobiles.

Answer: What are seat belts? Seat belts in their early days were just lap belts, but Volvo began popularizing the three-point belt in the 1960s.

21. ($400) The Swedish automaker Saab made these bottom-warming devices standard in 1972.

Answer: What are heated seats (or seat warmers)? Cadillac had debuted a seat warmer option in 1966, but Saab made a heated driver's seat standard.

22. ($600) In the 1980s, French automaker Renault debuted a car that could unlock without the use of these.

Answer: What are keys? The Renault Fuego featured a handheld keyless entry system, much like those commonly used today.

23. ($800) This Hueytown, Alabama, resident, along with son Davey, is one of NASCAR's most beloved drivers from the 1970s and '80s.

Answer: Who is Bobby Allison? The Allisons are one example of a racing family; others include the Earnhardts, Bakers, and Elliots.

24. ($1,000) Dashboards got a futuristic makeover in 1976, when the first of this type of display was unveiled. Bye-bye, analog dials!

Answer: What is digital? The Aston Martin Lagonda was the first car to feature a digital dashboard, paving the way for today's touchscreen dashes.

Sport Milestones and Records

25. ($100) The track and field world records for 100 and 200 meters are both held by this American, also called Flo Jo.

Answer: Who is Florence Griffith Joyner? Both records were set in 1988, one in Indiana and the other at the Olympics.

26. ($200) On April 4, 1974, this man tied Babe Ruth's record with 714 home runs; he would break the record only four days later.

Answer: Who is Hank Aaron? Aaron was congratulated for tying the record by Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn and Vice President Ford.

27. ($400) A milestone for this chilly sport came in 1972 with the Summit Series, a series of games between Canada and the Soviet Union.

Answer: What is ice hockey? The highlight of the series was Canada's dramatic win during game eight.

28. ($600) A milestone in basketball came in 1976 when the NBA joined forces with the ABA, which stands for this, creating a strengthened front.

Answer: What is the American Basketball Association? Importantly, the merger introduced the three-point line to NBA gameplay.

29. ($800) In 1984, a White Sox–Brewers game set a record for most of these played.

Answer: What are innings? The remarkable game was 25 innings and lasted over eight hours, which also set a record for the longest Major League game.

30. ($1,000) The world record for a hammer throw is held by Yuriy Sedykh, of this nation (at the time), which no longer exists.

Answer: What is the Soviet Union? Set on August 30, 1986, the record still stands at 86.74 meters (284.5 feet).

Cosmetics

31. ($100) Established in 1973, the International Cosmetic Ingredient Nomenclature Committee oversaw standardizing these for cosmetic ingredients.

Answer: What are names? Standardized names for ingredients were created in order to help consumers around the world recognize what was in their makeup.

32. ($200) Animal lovers rejoiced in 1981, when a research center was founded to find alternatives to this controversial kind of cosmetic testing.

Answer: What is animal testing? The Johns Hopkins Center for Alternatives to Animal Testing funds grants and research for finding animal-safe testing methods.

33. ($400) Popular since the 1960s, this cosmetic brand is named for its founder and known for its trademark pink cars driven by the company's salespeople.

Answer: What is Mary Kay? Mary Kay Ash decided customers would rather purchase products in a home environment and created her direct sales model.

34. ($600) In the 1970s, this eyelash enhancer became popular in colorful varieties like blue, green, and purple.

Answer: What is mascara? Mascara innovation continued in the '80s, when vitamins and growth serums were added to the cosmetic.

35. ($800) Cover Girl introduced a "crackle" variety of this fingertip-adorning cosmetic in 1999.

Answer: What is nail polish? Gals might remember the trend from the '90s and 2000s of layering crackle nail polish over a contrasting color to create a unique, weathered look.

36. ($1,000) In the 1970s, eyeshadow shades went pearlescent and were called this word, which calls to mind cakes more than makeup.

Answer: What is frosted? Cosmetics trends of the decade included highly blended frosted shadows in one shade across the entire lid.

Final Jeopardy

This 1980 Best Picture winner stars Dustin Hoffman and Meryl Streep, embroiled in a custody battle.

Answer: What is Kramer vs. Kramer? Meryl Streep actually wrote her closing monologue in the courtroom scene, and the director called it brilliant.
